In the event of any grade below at “B”, the course will have to be repeated until at least a “B” is earned. The student is responsible for any remedial work that may be suggested by the faculty in order to successfully complete the Practicum/Internship courses.

Practicum/Internship students are considered guests at the sites where they are serving and should behave in a professional manner at all times. Supervisors should be treated with respect. The information learned during the practicum/internship will be foundational to the post graduate internship experience. The final practicum/internship grade is dependent upon the evaluation given by both the site supervisor and the practicum professor.

In selecting a practicum/internship site, students will need to plan their schedules carefully to accommodate the total number of required hours, including the number of direct client hours.

The breakdown of the Practicum hours is as follows:

Direct Client Hours	40
Group Supervision Hours	1.5 per week: 24- long semester 15- summer
Individual Supervision Hours	15 (long semester) 10 (summer)
Non-Client Hours or Additional Client Hours	21 (long semester) 35 (summer)
Total Hours	100

The breakdown of the Internship hours (per semester) is as follows:

Direct client hours	120
Group Supervision Hours	1.5 per week: 24 (each long semester) 15- summer
Individual Supervision Hours	15 (long semester) 10 hours (summer)
Non-Client Hours or Additional Client Hours	141 (long semester) 155 (summer)
Total Hours	300

As counseling students are working toward the completion of a minimum of 280 direct client hours (40 in practicum and a total of 240 in the internship courses), and the effective development of individual counseling skills, students must also lead or co-lead a counseling or psychoeducational group, during either the practicum or internship experience, to ensure effective exposure to and development of group counseling skills.

Students are responsible for selecting a practicum/internship site. The practicum/internship coordinator oversees the practicum and internship sites for the MAPC program and may assist students in securing a practicum or internship site if needed.

Good supervision is an essential component of student development and training during the practicum/internship experience. The requirements to be a practicum/internship supervisor include the following: site supervisors have (1) a minimum of a master’s degree, preferably in counseling, or a related profession; (2) relevant certifications and/or licenses; (3) a minimum of two years of pertinent professional experience in the specialty area in which the student is enrolled; (4) knowledge of the program’s expectations, requirements, and evaluation procedures for students; and (5) relevant training in counseling supervision. Students must meet with their supervisor one hour per week for individual or triadic supervision.

Academic Appeals Policy

Academic Conduct Policy

Consistent with the Christian character and values of Dallas Baptist University and in order to encourage and preserve the honor and integrity of the academic community, the University expects its students to maintain high Biblical standards of personal and scholarly conduct.

Honor Code

Consistent with the Christian character and values of Dallas Baptist University and in order to encourage and preserve the honor and integrity of the academic community, the University expects its students to maintain high Biblical standards of personal and scholarly conduct.

The Integrity of the upright guides them, but the unfaithful are destroyed by their duplicity. – Proverbs 11:3

It is the mission of Dallas Baptist University to provide students with an educational experience that will allow them to grow in every aspect of their lives. Central to the success of the student is the knowledge that God made us in His own image. This reminds us that in the vast universe that reflects God's glory, humans are uniquely "crowned with glory and honor" (Arthur F. Holmes, The Idea of a Christian College).

Through the Honor Code at Dallas Baptist University students are to uphold the integrity of themselves, their fellow students, and God by maintaining the highest moral and ethical character in all aspects of their college career.

The Honor Pledge

As a student at Dallas Baptist University, I pledge to uphold the honor and integrity of myself, my fellow students, and my God to the highest moral and ethical standard. As I grow in my understanding of servant leadership, I promise to abide by all University policies and procedures. I will not lie, steal, or cheat, nor tolerate this behavior in others. I pledge to confront and expose any attempt to undermine the success of the academic or university community at DBU.

Faculty members are encouraged to remind students in their classes of this written statement of policies and procedures developed by the University in regard to cheating on examinations, plagiarism, collusion, and other academic-related misconduct.

All instructors or proctors shall have the right to examine materials in the student's possession during quizzes, examinations, and/or laboratory sessions.

In instances of cheating during an examination or other classroom or laboratory activity or exercise, the instructor shall have the right to suspend the student(s) who is (are) cheating from further work on the examination or exercise and to deny the student(s) credit for the examination or exercise.

Academic Misconduct

Academic Misconduct includes, but is not limited to, the following:

Cheating shall be defined as copying from another student's test paper, laboratory work, other written work, or computer files and listings; using, during a test or laboratory experiment, material and/or devices not authorized by the person in charge of the test, including the sharing of calculator results or information and the unauthorized use of cellular telephones, tablets and other electronic tools to improperly access or share information; willfully cooperating with or seeking aid from another student during a test or laboratory experiment without permission; knowingly using, buying, selling, stealing, transporting, or soliciting in its entirety or in part, the contents of a test or other assignment unauthorized for release; substituting for another student, or permitting another student to substitute for oneself, to take a test or other assignment or to make a presentation.

Plagiarism shall be defined as the appropriation, theft, purchase, memorization, or obtaining by any means another's work, and the unacknowledged submission or incorporation of that work as one's own offered for credit. (Appropriation includes the quoting or paraphrasing of another's work, words, or ideas without appropriate citation of the source(s).)

Re-submission of assignments shall be defined as submitting any work previously submitted by the student for credit in another course. Such action is prohibited unless previously approved by the current instructor.

Collusion shall be defined as the unauthorized collaboration with another in preparing work offered for credit. A student is not guilty of collusion if he or she merely discusses with another a matter relevant to the work in question.

Academic Appeal and Academic Misconduct Procedure

Applications for a formal academic appeal are available in the Office of the Registrar. In order to ensure an appeal process that is fair and timely to all parties involved, the following procedure is in place for academic appeals.

- If the student wishes to file a formal concern regarding classroom procedure, the process starts with step 1a.
- Should the faculty member find a student subject to academic misconduct as defined in the University catalog, the process starts with step 1b.
- If a student wishes to raise grounds for challenging a specific academic policy of the University, not the resolution of an academic matter with a faculty member or other responsible person, the appeals process begins with step 7 below.

Upon receipt of a formal written appeal in the Office of the Registrar, the procedure below will be followed.

1a. The student should schedule a conference with the faculty member (or other individual directly responsible) within 14 calendar days of receipt of final grade notification. The faculty member (or other individual) may resolve the problem at that point. (Skip to step 2.)

1b. If there are reasons for a faculty member to believe that a student has engaged in academic misconduct, the faculty member shall notify the student of the charges. The student should contact the faculty member within 14 calendar days of receipt of notification to arrange a conference with the faculty member.

2. If the faculty member is unavailable, the student shall notify the dean of the appropriate college in writing within seven additional calendar days that he/she is seeking a conference with the faculty member. The conference shall be held at the earliest possible convenience of the faculty member and the student.

3. If the matter is not resolved to the satisfaction of the student, he/she may submit a written appeal to the dean of the appropriate college (and the chair of the appropriate department, if applicable) within seven calendar days of the conference.
4. The dean of the appropriate college (and the chair of the appropriate department, if applicable) shall schedule a conference with the student and/or other involved persons within seven calendar days of receiving the appeal from the student.
5. The dean shall notify all parties in writing of his/her decision within seven calendar days after the conference.
6. If the student believes the decision of the dean is unwarranted, he/she may appeal to the appropriate graduate or undergraduate Academic Appeals Committee in writing within seven calendar days after receipt of the decision of the dean.
7. The Academic Appeals Committee shall establish a regular monthly meeting date for the purpose of hearing appeals. The date shall be published in all appropriate university publications. The deadline for filing an appeal shall be one week prior to a meeting. Appeals filed after the deadline will be heard at the next meeting of the committee. All parties involved shall be notified of the meeting date at which the appeal will be heard and given the opportunity to be present.
8. The Academic Appeals Committee shall notify all parties in writing of its decision within seven calendar days.
9. If a student believes the decision of the Academic Appeals Committees unwarranted, he/she may appeal to the Provost within seven calendar days after receipt of the decision of the Academic Appeals Committee.
10. If requested, the Provost shall schedule a conference with the student and/or other involved parties to be held within 14 calendar days of the receipt of the student's appeal.
11. The Provost shall notify all parties in writing of his/her decision within 14 calendar days after the conference.

Note 1: The Academic Appeal and Academic Misconduct Appeal Procedure is an internal academic process of the University and legal counsel may not participate in any conference or hearing.

Note 2: Faculty members have the same right of appeal as the student at each stage of the above process.

Endorsement Policy

DBU counseling students and graduates may request an endorsement (a verbal or written recommendation) from program faculty for employment or further academic opportunities. Effective communication and professional etiquette are essential when requesting recommendations from professors, supervisors, or mentors. This endorsement policy aims to establish clear guidelines for individuals seeking recommendation letters, ensuring that the process remains respectful, transparent, and mutually beneficial for all parties involved.

1. Purpose:

Endorsements or Letters of Recommendation serve as a valuable tool for assessing an individual's skills, achievements, and character. They enhance credibility, validate achievements, and contribute to a well-rounded professional resume.

2. Requesting an Endorsement:

When requesting an endorsement, consider the following guidelines:

- Students must submit a written and signed request for endorsement to the MAPC Director, or other identified counseling faculty. Requests should include the name of the organization, contact information, and name of person requesting the endorsement.
- Students should choose an appropriate person who can provide specific and relevant insights into their skills and qualities. Students should respectfully accept the professor's decision if they decline due to time constraints, unfamiliarity with the student's work, or for any other reasons.
- Students should clearly outline the purpose of the recommendation (job application, academic program, or other purpose). Students should also provide ample time for the professor to craft a thoughtful recommendation; avoid last-minute requests; reach out to the potential recommender well in advance of the deadline. Students will approach the process with respect, appreciation, and a clear understanding of the time and effort the faculty member dedicated to completing the endorsement.
- When requesting a recommendation, students should offer relevant information that can guide the endorser's writing process, such as a resume. Endorsement often includes verification of student records (e.g., GPA, program requirements, graduation status) and affirmation of professional dispositions. Because student records are protected by the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) laws, students seeking an endorsement must complete a FERPA Authorization Form (forms are available from the DBU Registrar's Office) granting permission for the director or faculty member to share information about a student's records with a third party.

Policy for Student Retention, Remediation, and Dismissal from the Program

New students in the Master of Arts in Professional Counseling program are required to read and sign the Agreement Contract (below). The contract outlines the policy for student retention, remediation, and dismissal from the program. The contract also describes the requirement of 8 sessions of individual counseling that each student will complete by the end of second semester of enrollment. The signed contract must be returned to the program director before the student can begin taking courses.

MASTER OF ARTS IN PROFESSIONAL COUNSELING AGREEMENT CONTRACT

The Master of Arts degree in Professional Counseling (MAPC) prepares graduates to render counseling services in a variety of settings such as community counseling centers, drug and alcohol treatment facilities, college and university counseling centers, Christian counseling centers, private psychiatric hospitals, abuse shelters, churches, rehabilitation centers, and private practice.

The Professional Counseling faculty of DBU feels a strong professional and ethical responsibility to these counseling professions and to future clients and takes very seriously the responsibility to admit to the program only those individuals with personal attributes appropriate to the professions and the university mission statement. Therefore, since academic standards alone are not sufficient to ensure that appropriate skills and values are present in the personal qualities of prospective degree candidates, the Professional Counseling faculty conducts academic and professional evaluations of students on a regularly scheduled basis through a variety of evaluative methodology. The evaluation procedures serve two main purposes:

1. To provide students with information related to their progress that will enable them to take advantage of their strengths and to remediate their weaknesses in their academic, professional, and personal development.
2. To provide the Professional Counseling faculty with information about the progress of the student so that decisions made concerning continuance in the program are in the best interest of the student and the counseling professions.

In addition to academic performance, students will be evaluated by the Professional Counseling faculty on the following characteristics deemed necessary for the development of an ethical and competent counselor.

Self-Awareness/ Self-Understanding of Values, Beliefs, Limitations	Cooperativeness in Relationships
Openness to Emotions/Appropriate Expression of Feelings	Positiveness in Attitude and Manner
Openness to Feedback from Professors and Supervisors	Flexibility and Adaptability in Changing Circumstances
Awareness of Impact of Self on Others- Verbal and Non-Verbal	Ability to Accept Personal Responsibility for Verbal and Non-Verbal Actions

If a student's academic performance or behavior is deemed substandard by a professor in the MAPC program, the following action steps will be taken:

1. The student will meet with the professor to work out a solution to the academic or behavioral issue. The student will be given an opportunity to show improvement regarding the issue. The MAPC director will be made aware of the issue and will give appropriate input.
2. If step one is not successful, the issue will be addressed by the Professional Counseling faculty, and a remediation plan will be designed and presented to the student. The student will be given an opportunity to implement the remediation plan and show improvement regarding the issue.
3. If the student fails to adopt the remediation plan or does not show improvement regarding the issue, the student will not be allowed to continue in the MAPC program.

Students not satisfied with the decision of the Professional Counseling faculty should follow the appeals procedures of Dallas Baptist University.

Students will be required to complete eight (8) counseling sessions and provide verification of attendance by the completion of the second semester enrolled in the MAPC Program. No student will be allowed to register for Practicum until the 8 sessions are completed. All 8 sessions must be with the same therapist. If you stop counseling with a counselor before the 8 sessions are completed, you must start over with a new one.

By signing below, you are indicating that you have read and agree to follow the above guidelines.

The student can use any device to track their hours on the go. Tevera provides interactive charts and graphs to monitor student progress throughout the practicum and Internship experience. The student can print off all reported direct and indirect hours at the end of the semester.

Licensure Requirements:

After completion of the graduate counseling program, the graduate is eligible to apply for Texas LPC licensure. In order to become licensed, the graduate must pass the National Counselor Examination for Licensure and Certification (NCE) and complete a 3000-hour supervised counseling internship. Concurrently with the COUN 6319–Internship II class, DBU students enroll in COUN 6000–Comprehensive Counseling Review, which helps students review the necessary knowledge to taking their NCE exam. With the affiliation agreement with the NBCC, MAPC students are also able to take their licensing exam during their last semester at DBU, and become Nationally Certified Counselors upon graduation, if they choose. Once students have passed their NCE, graduates then apply for their LPC Associate license which allows you to begin accruing the supervised clinical experience necessary to become a full Licensed Professional Counselor. All applicants for LPC Associate must:

- 1) submit a complete application and fee (fee covers both Associate license and upgrade to full LPC)
- 2) submit a signed supervisory agreement form with a board approved supervisor
- 3) submit passing scores from the NBCC
- 4) submit an official transcript that shows the conferral date of your graduate counseling degree
- 5) complete the Texas Jurisprudence Examination
- 6) submit a self-query report from the National Practitioner Data Bank
- 7) submit electronic fingerprints for a nationwide criminal history search.

8) the applicant should contact a board-approved supervisor to set up a supervisory relationship by completing the Supervisory Agreement Form found on the BHEC forms webpage. Applicants for licensure who have passed the licensing exam and have set up supervision with a board-approved supervisor should submit their application and supporting documents via our online licensing system.
